PERSONAL STATEMENT

This section must be completed and returned to Golden Gate School of Feng Shui (GGSFS) within 5 days of the date of this application. Personal statements can be emailed to info@fengshuischool.com

We are excited to get to know you better. Please address all of the following questions on one to three type - written pages.

- ◆ Tell us about yourself! Please write a brief statement about your life and what led you to apply to GGSFS. Include significant life events such as personal, educational, and professional experiences, as well as specific interests.
- ◆ Describe your experience with feng shui (if applicable).
- ◆ Describe your personal and professional goals and how you intend to utilize your feng shui training.
- ◆ GGSFS combines community-based learning with intensive self-discovery and academics. Describe your experience, strengths and challenges in the areas of community-learning (collectively studying with your peers) and self-study discipline (taking initiative and completing assignments).
- ◆ GGSFS has a unique curriculum. The content is not only data but contains an invitation to a new way of learning and appreciating your environment. There are things best simply memorized and others that will challenge the way in which you now hold knowledge. Upon completion of the program we want you to have not only a new set of ideas and measures but also a new way of perceiving your environment. We are looking for students interested in feng shui that are willing to open up to the ideas AND perhaps a new way to learn them. The course may challenge conventions and preconceptions you now hold. Are you willing to look at new material AND new ways in which to learn?
- ◆ Please discuss your commitment to completing homework assignments.
In order to be certified by GGSFS students are required to complete at least 12 hours of homework assignments between each class, half of which must be submitted within two weeks of class.
- ◆ This program requires a keen listening ability and attention to detail. Following directions and completing assignments as well as taking responsibility for your participation in the program is part of ones path to embracing this body of knowledge.
Please discuss where you see yourself in these areas, what you are still working on and your commitment to taking responsibility for your learning experience.
- ◆ Experiential learning is an important component of our program. This will involve feng shui consultations, a workshop on natural paints and finishes and a full day of hiking and observing the land. These days may be physically demanding and require appropriate dress code especially at feng shui consults.

Please let us know if there is anything that may limit your participation.
